

Old Dominion University Scholarship Opportunity for Severely Injured or Disabled Service Members

Old Dominion University is pleased to announce a scholarship opportunity for DOD military personnel who have been severely injured or disabled in the line of duty. The scholarship is in the amount of $1,000.00, and will be applied toward the cost of tuition for degree programs at Old Dominion University for either full-time or part-time study. One scholarship will be awarded annually; it does not renew automatically for prior recipients. Reapplication is required, but award is not guaranteed.

Who is eligible?

Any service member sustaining a disability in the line of duty or their dependents/family members (spouse, sons or daughters) may apply.

- Surviving dependents of qualifying service personnel killed in the line of duty are also eligible.
- Applicants must be attending Old Dominion University, either in degree or non-degree status, in the semester in which the award is granted, and the award is not retroactive.

What is the application process?

- Complete an application
- Include copy of member (sponsor) VA disability documentation
- Deadline: Currently accepting applications.

What are the selection criteria?

- Content and quality of the application essay
- Acceptance to the University (degree or non-degree status)
- Documentation of VA disability

Recipient will be notified in writing within ten (10 business days) following the selection process
